

Storymaking

Workshops

Nigel Little is a professional storyteller and experienced workshop leader who is offering storymaking workshops to help children develop skills and an understanding of:

- Story construction
- Character development
- Creative writing
- Drama
- Puppet making

Nigel's dynamic delivery style and enthusiasm for his subject guarantees an unforgettable learning experience for pupils of all ages. Workshops are based around the teachings of Pi Corbett and are suitable for KS1- KS3 children.

Nigel is available for many other storybased visits and likes to tailor his workshops to the needs of individual schools. Please contact Fran at Gloucestershire Arts For Schools
